Students Seminar conducted by the Political Science Department, 14/12/2021

The Political Science Department organized a Students Seminar on 14th December, 2021 in Academic Conference Hall.

Since the Seminar was meant for 1st, 3rd and 5th Semester (Honours) students of the department only, all of them actively participated. The total number of participants were 54(fifty-four) only. For the effective management, the students were divided into 12(twelve) groups and distributed twelve different topics for presenting Seminar papers.

The Students Seminar was conducted by Dr Nanda Kumar Sahu, Head of the Department of Political Science as the Chairperson. Dr Gonesh Ch. Borah, Dr Barnali Saikia and Smti Puja Das, the faculties of the department were present and shared their views on the various topics. The session of the seminar was interesting and lively interaction in between paper presenter and the participants. Even from faculties Dr. G. C. Borah too interacted and highlighted the pros and cons of the seminar papers submitted for the discussion. At last, the chairperson Dr Sahu encouraged the students for their presentation and hope better papers from students for near future. The chairperson thanked the Principal Dr. Dulen Saikia of the College for his advice, and whole hearted support unless this 'Students Seminar' would not be successful. At last, Dr Barnali Saikia gave vote of thanks and the Chairperson declared winding up the session.
