

Report on the Student Seminar on "Impact of FDI on Domestic Firms."

JKM, Dept. Of Economics, 2017.

A one day seminar on “Impact of FDI on domestic firms” was hosted in Jorhat Kendriya Mahavidyalaya by the Dept. Of Economics under the Chairmanship of Arup Kumar Mahanta, Head of the Department. Its main aim was to show the impact of FDI on private domestic investment and its pros and cons. There were more than 40 attendees from the department that included professors, Students of all the semesters, IT technicians etc.

The presentations used data to investigate empirically the effects of direct foreign investment (DFI) on the productivity performance of domestic firms in emerging economy like India & also how local businesses are affected from this. Students-Ashim Dutta, Bhargav Dutta, Pompy Dutta, Primlee Boruah, Mridupaban Lahon, Himanshu Borah, Dipjyoti Borah, Nayan Jyoti Borah, Pranjal Kalita, Alok Borah raised their queries on the above topic.

The conclusion of the seminar:-

1. The paper presentation meets the queries of the students and provides essential information.
2. The chairperson of the seminar delivered a valuable speech and suggestions for the students.
3. The innovative use of graphical and mapping software for ‘storytelling’ has increased significantly since the last seminar.
4. At the end the chairperson concluded the seminar with his valuable speech

Date: 22nd October 2017

No of Participants: 40 (Forty)

